DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: (11). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "23" has been used to designate both the "plug" and the "horizontal cord". A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "39" has been used to designate both the "aperture" and the "knots". A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
4. Applicant is required to submit a proposed drawing correction in reply to this Office action. However, formal correction of the noted defect may be deferred until after the examiner has considered the proposed drawing correction. Failure to timely submit the proposed drawing correction will result in the abandonment of the application.

Specification

5. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "the invention provides", as in line 1, etc.

6. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

On page 10, line 13, (39) is described as a "small aperture", however, on line 16, (39) is described as a "knot".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 3634

As concerns claims 1 and 5, the phrase “an aperture for fitting within said bore” is vague and indefinite since it is not understood how an “aperture”, which is a hole, can conceivably be able to fit within a “bore”...a hole within a hole? Furthermore, the limitation “a first vertical elevation cord...affixed adjacent said first end of said first vertical elevation cord” is vague and indefinite since it is not understood how an element can be fixed adjacent itself.

As concerns claims 7 and 8, the phrase “dissemble” should read --disassemble--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Art Unit: 3634

9. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Judkins et al 6,119,757.

As concerns claims 1-4, Judkins et al set forth a cord and louver assembly (best illustrated in Figures 1, 3, 12, and 15) comprising a pair of ladder cords having vertical cord portions and a plurality of horizontal cord portions forming ladder openings; a plurality of louvers each having cord openings; a base louver having bores; end plugs fitting within the bores of the base louver; vertical elevation cords extending through the cord openings, the apertures of the plugs and affixed thereto; and a channel assembly.

As concerns claims 5-8, Judkins et al set forth the apparatus, as advanced above, and therefore the process of forming of forming the blind set.
